

SUSAN ENIH TATAH

Public Speaker | Cultural Diplomat | Diaspora Development Advocate

Speaker Positioning

Susan Tatah is a keynote speaker and thought leader on African diaspora development, migration, culture, volunteerism, and public speaking as leadership infrastructure. With over 25 years of public engagement, she reframes African migrants as key stakeholders in Africa's present and future.

Signature Keynote Topics

- Beyond Remittances: African Migrants as Invisible Infrastructure
- From Migrant to Africa's Key Stakeholder
- A Festival. A Woman. A Public Speaker.
- Volunteerism Is Capital
- Africa's Skilled Future Is Already Abroad
- Reconnecting Africa and Its Global Descendants

Ideal Audiences

- African Union & African governments
- European institutions and development partners
- Universities and research institutes
- Diaspora and civil society organizations
- Cultural festivals and foundations

Available Engagement Formats

Keynote addresses, conference plenaries, policy dialogues, panel moderation, fireside conversations, university lectures, and cultural diplomacy sessions.

Booking & Contact

For speaking engagements, conference invitations, or institutional collaborations, please contact:

Email: panafricandailytv@gmail.com